Belated Trains at Suspension Bridge

DETROIT, February 10.—The statement recently telegraphed from New York, intimating that passenger trains behind time are not permitted by the Custom officers to cross at Suspension bridge, is officially contradicted. There is no interruption whatever to the passage of trains over the bridge, and no examination of the baggage of through passengers since the completion of the third rail on the Great Western, making the gauge the same on the connecting roads. Sleeping cars are run from here direct to Rochester. The through freight business over the route is proving a valuable auxiliary to the various roads concerned in the rapid transmission of freight. IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

MR. PEABODY AND THE PRESIDENT.

Agricultural Report for January.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10, 1867.

GEN. BANKS' RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

The following are the provisions of the Reconstruction bill proposed by Gen. Banks. The preamble recites that—

WHEREAS, A form of government has been organized in Louisiana, one of the States lately in rebellion, which has never been recognized by Congress, and having failed to secure the rights of loyal citizens or protect them against disloyal persons, and cannot now be recognized without peril to public interest; and whereas, the condition of the country imperatively demands the just administration in this and other insurgent States; and whereas, there is reason to believe that with such protection as the General Government may rightfully extend under the Constitution, they will be able to establish and maintain for themselves the equal rights affirmed by the Declaration of Independence, and guaranteed by the Constitution to the people of the United States forever.

The first section provides, first, for the organization of three districts, each to be designated by the Senate, one by the House, and one officer of the army to be designated by the Head of the Department of War, to proceed to the respective districts on a re-establish the Civil Government in a Republican form, on the basis herein specified.

The second provides for the registration of all loyal male citizens twenty-one years of age and upwards, without distinction of race, color and former condition of slavery, six months resident in the State, heretofore exercised the right of suffrage or served in the army or navy of the United States, or possessed real or personal estate the value of one hundred dollars, and who are able to contribute by taxation to the support of the Government, or can read and write. Citizens so registered shall have the right to vote for Delegates to the Constitutional Convention.

The third excludes from suffrage all who have taken oath as members of Congress, officers in the Army or Navy, members of the State Legislature, and Executive or Judicial officers in any State, to support the Constitution of the States subsequently engaged in rebellion, who have given aid or comfort thereto, or voted for any act of secession; but in Congress by a vote of two-thirds, each House may remove such disability.

Fourth: Commissioners empowered and directed to call an enrolling of the qualified voters, qualified under this act, not less than thirty days notice being given under such regulations as they shall deem necessary or expedient for the choice of delegates to a Convention, for the adoption of a Constitutional Convention, which shall consist of the same number as that of the most numerous branch of legislature, previous to the rebellion. The Convention shall meet at the time designated by the Commissioners.

Fifth—Registered voters and all elected to office under this application are subject to the test oath. If the Commissioners or officers of registration be satisfied that any person has falsely or fraudulently taken the test oath, his name shall be stricken from the registry.

The Convention, when duly organized, shall establish by its ordinance a State Government as a basis for the restoration of the civil government of Louisiana. Second—Ratification of the Constitutional amendment proposed to the Legislatures of the several States by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and if the same be accepted and ratified, the Convention shall thereupon frame such State Constitution, and the Constitution to be submitted to the registered voters qualified under this act, and a majority of legal voters, to be submitted to Congress, and if approved, to be declared the Constitution of the State of Louisiana. The Military Commander of the Department is authorized to declare martial law in certain contingencies, and may call upon the officers and soldiers of the Commissioners, maintain public peace; and all public officers or persons in authority, by whom such power is exercised, are required to render to the Commissioners or officers appointed by them, or in pursuance to their orders, such aid as may be necessary to secure objects contemplated. Military officers are authorized and required, upon complaint of Commissioners or officers appointed, &c., to arrest, and cause to be tried by military commission, any person who shall be guilty of any offense against public peace or personal rights. Section 2nd—Expenses to be paid by the United States and reimbursed by the State. Section 2nd appropriates the amount required to carry this act into effect.

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL TAX BILL—AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

The Committee on Ways and Means will probably to-morrow report an amendatory internal tax bill based on the theory of getting rid of the general tax on manufacturing at the earliest possible moment, but the wants of the government this year will not permit it to be done at once, but on the principle is to be gradual in its operation.

The Committee proposes to exempt from tax all articles which enter largely into the cost of living, for instance salt. Leather, tin, earthern, pottery and hollow ware are all exempted, as are also hoes, rakes, scales, all steam and horse engines, all drain, gas or water pipes of iron, wood or other material, all clothing made from articles subject to tax—America and knit are not, however exempt from the tax in cases where a tax has not been paid on the raw material. Advertisements are to be relieved from tax. Many manufactures which are now taxed 2 per cent. are to be freed from tax. Among these are all glue and varnish, and all wagons, drays and trucks, costing less than two dollars, and used for freighting purposes. Butter and cheese are to be free from tax.

A section is added to avid the duplication of tax. The principle is a tax on the raw material there shall not be another on the manufactured article in its various forms. Not to be either on the raw material or manufactured or raw article. A large number of articles are to be exempt from tax because the expense of collecting is not equivalent to the receipts therefrom. The bill also proposes, in this and other ways, to reduce the labor of the Assessors, and the duties of the Collectors generally, and to remove from match boxes, but the stamp is to be attached for matches. Boxes or other packages or bottles are also exempt where their contents are taxed.

The Committee propose, in addition to dry casks and barrels, to exempt all other casks, barrels, or other coopers ware, including oil, liquor, meat and fish barrels and casks.

The tax on raw cotton remains as now, proposing to reduce the rate of the present at a uniform rate of one cent per pound.

The tax remains the same on liquors or distilled spirits, but the license for distillation is increased from $100 to $500.

The provisions relating to the distillation from grape, apple and peach, remain unchanged, but the tax made from grapes is to be 50 cents a gallon.

The income tax is to be on amount in excess over $1,500 and at the uniform rate of 5 per cent. The rent, taxes, insurance and repairs of all kinds are to be taken out of the income, so in effect the income is to be assessed on an average amount of $1,500.

In addition there is a new provision for the collection of tax on spirits of an iron clad character, and a provision for the fine or a fine or imprisonment the bill visits both on the convicted offenders, and where it says the imprisonment shall not exceed two or three years, the bill provides that the imprisonment shall not be less than two or three years, nor more than four.

Other sections have been added to prevent fraud, such as the following: Where an article is offered for sale at less than the amount of tax. This fact is to be regarded as prima facia evidence that it has not paid tax and is therefore subject to seizure.

AGRICULTURAL REPORT.

The report of Agriculture for January contains an elaborate compilation of the statistics of wages of farm labor throughout the country, based on original returns. The average rate of wages for white labor without board is $28 per month, and $15,50 with board. The average rate of freedmen's labor is $16 without board, and with board furnished $9,75. The highest rates for States are in California, which are about $45, Massachusetts pays the next highest, $38. The average rate for the Eastern States is $32,30; in the Middle States, $30,07; in the Western States, $28,90; in the Southern States, freedmen, $16. The increase in the price of labor since 1860 is about fifty per cent.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

The receipts of Internal Revenue yester, day were $772,181.

PATENT OFFICE SELF-SUSTAINING.

The Patent Office is the only self-sustaining branch of the Government. The fund now on hand for paying the entire expense of the office is $230,000, all paid by inventors.

ADMISSION OF NEBRASKA.

It has been ascertained that Nebraska has about one hundred thousand inhabitants, and this number is increasing rapidly. Gen. Thayer, one of the Senators elect, was on the floor when the House passed the bill for the admission of the new State over the veto and received the congratulations of his friends.

VIRGINIA FREEDMEN'S AFFAIRS.

The report to the Freedmen's Bureau from the Assistant Superintendent of Fairfax county, dated Vienna, Va., 2d inst., states that fair contracts for the ensuing year have pretty generally been effected. There is now very little surplus labor in the county. A growing disposition to cultivate lands upon shares is manifested.

Mr. Peabody, in an allusion to England, said there was now a more friendly feeling towards the United States by the people and government of that country than ever before.

THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT BILL.

The Executive mansion has been thoroughly renovated, at a cost of $40,000. The new carpets and curtains were especially imported from England.

THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT BILL.

The vote in the House last night on refusing to second the previous question on the Military Government Bill, was by letter, the Democrats voting solidly against it, with sufficient support from the Republican ranks to make the negative vote 98, against an affirmative vote of 61.

MILITARY SUPPLIES.

A communication from the Secretary of War gives details of the enormous expense of supplies delivered in the Rocky Mountain region: Hay, $60 to $110 per ton; corn, 8 6 8 cents per pound, &c.

Another communication states, on the authority of General Grant, that no such order as reported issued by General Sherman, for the protection of overland trains, has been received at headquarters. A copy of the senate resolution relative thereto has been referred to General Sherman for a report.

NEW YORK, February 10.—The Ocean Queen brought $760,000 in treasure.

WILLIAM B. LITTLE, United States Consul at Panama, is dead.

Advices from Bogata state that the American Minister (Burton) made no settlement of his difficulty with the Executive, and has asked for a vessel of war to the coast to wait instructions from his government. He complains of lack of courtesy to himself and family, and of the action of the Mosquero, and evidently appears to have the best of the dispute.

The Government of Columbian government at Panama and Aspinwall are ordered to take exact data as follows: The total weight of mails transported over the Isthmus; the number of passengers; the quantity of money, and treasure, and the total weight of cargo, as most carriers of steamers in the respective ports. It is presumed it must be all weighed over.

A bank is to be established in Guatamala, with a capital of $5,000,000.

The coffee crop there is about the same as last year; that of cochineal is greater. The cotton crop at San Salvador was destroyed by worms and rains. The yield will not be over 1,200 bales. Five vessels are expected at Acajulta to load with coffee, cigars and cochineal.

President Duena's message represents all peaceful and prosperous. The balance of cash on hand is $1,000,000, and there is no deficit of the public debt being paid off.

The revolution in Nicaragua is suppressed.

The epidemics on the Transit route are disappearing, though it is reported that one hundred United States troops died of a fever. Work on the railroad progresses at Granada, Rivas and Managua. All vessels will be prohibited from touching at Realgo or else be subjected to quarantine at Punta Arenas and Corinto.

Amusements

OPERA HOUSE.—On Saturday evening the brief season of Italian Opera, with which the Ghioni and Susini troupe had favored(?) us, terminated with "Norma." The audience was good; the music was not. Tonight the play-goers will be pleased with a return to the legitimate drama and the excellent acting of Manager Henderson's newly organized company. This evening is set aside for the benefit of Mr. J. F. Hagan, who makes his first appeal to a Pittsburgh audience in the "Rent Day" and "Lake, the Laborer," giving a recitation of Lover's pathetic poem of "Shamus O'Brien" between the pieces. Success to Mr. Hagan's advent among us, he has toiled industriously to purge his acting of many faults, and on this account alone he should have a hearty reception to-night.

Lola de Vere and Miss Lena Cavender, who will each appear for the first time this evening in favorite characters.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Seduction Case—Further Developments.

On Saturday the case of a partial report of the case of a young girl who had been seduced and betrayed under promise of marriage by a married man residing in Temperanceville. We suppressed the name in the case, as no arrest had been made. On Saturday, however, the accused was arrested by officer Sarber and taken before Alderman Donaldson for a hearing. The young lady's name is Louisa Stoner, and L. is name of her alleged betrayer is George Kesmith. The latter is an Englishman and is employed at some coal works near Saw Mill Run, where he is experimenting with a new patent Slack Burner. He is a married man, having a wife and four children, who he has not recently arrived in this vicinity. At the hearing on Saturday he denied the charge utterly, and he and his friends profess to be abundantly able to prove that, at the time when he is accused of committing the monstrous crime, seven months ago, he was not in this vicinity at all. The plaintiff, however, is steadfast in her declarations, made under oath. Kesmith is under $1,000 bail for further hearing this week.

Miss Stoner also makes information before the same magistrate, charging Dr. A. Pratt, of St. Clair street, with attempting to procure an abortion upon her by the use of instruments. She states that the lady with whom she boarded in Allegheny discovered her condition, and urged her to go to Dr. Pratt's office to discover whether she really were or were not enceinte. She consented, and on Tuesday, January 15th, went to his office and made known her errand. In her statement she says that the Doctor refused to have anything to do with her case unless she should pay him $25 down, with the promise of $15 more. She paid the $25 and was then, as she says, operated upon by the Doctor with instruments, and the result of this operation was the premature birth of her child on Thursday last. The defendant was arrested by officer Lutz. He denies any attempt on his part to procure an abortion, and says he merely examined the girl to discover her condition. Those who attended the unfortunate young lady, however, during her sickness, express their decided opinion that the instruments were used in the case to procure birth. The accused was held to bail in the sum of $1,000

INORDINATE DESIRE OF BUSINESS.

In Boston attention is attracted to the fact that as soon as [illegible] become qualified to transact business, in almost any department, they go elsewhere to engage for themselves. The Board of Trade, at their late annual meeting, deemed the matter of so much importance as to bring it up for discussion, acknowledging the necessity of doing something to prevent the exodus of youthful vigor, enterprise and competency. It was generally admitted that the difficulty had its source in the unwillingness of men of middle life, and even in advanced years, to relinquish business that had been to them the means of wealth, and thus make room for their juniors. To provide, in some measure, at least, a remedy, it was determined to seek an alteration of the law regulating limited partnerships, so as to enable old men to make room for young ones without entirely withdrawing.

In no other country in the world are business men so completely absorbed in their occupations as in this. They give themselves no rest or relaxation. If recreations are allowed, it is only at long intervals, and they are almost invariably pursued with such vehemence as to make them nearly as prejudicial as unremitted toil. In the economy of every day life there is small provision for any other enjoyment than that which arises from making money, or endeavoring to make it. Home becomes mainly a place to eat and sleep, and be nursed in sickness; not a circle for constant and ineffable happiness.

Some years ago, an acquaintance of ours, not more addicted than the mass of Americans to inordinate chase after business, had the misfortune to break his leg, and, as he had reached middle life, there was a certainty that some weeks would be consumed in healing. A lady archly exclaimed, having an eye as well on her own husband's delinquencies in that regard, "What a capital time he will have to stay at home, and get acquainted with his wife and children." The wit was attic; but its excellence was in its truth. There are tens of thousands of business men in the United States whose domestic relations would be heightened and purified, if they should each happen to break a leg.

Stepping into a railroad coach early one morning, we encountered an acquaintance on whose head lay the snows of seventy winters. He had been riding bolt upright all night. Taking a seat beside him, we playfully remarked, knowing that such expeditions were common with him, "Probably you find such fatigues necessary to the comfortable maintenance of your family." He smiled grimly, while he answered, "I have already enough to spoil my sons and daughters." Pressing a point, we inquired, "Why, then, not stop and enjoy the abundant fortune you have made?" His answer went to the marrow of his own case, and to multitudes of cases besides. Said he, "When I started in life I resolved to acquire a liberal competence. I have obtained it. But, in getting it I have so trained myself that there is no enjoyment for me except in heaping up more. With no resources of pleasure, or enjoyment in literature, art, science, travel, or social life, horticulture or floriculture, there is nothing I am good for but to keep on and see how large a fortune I can make." These muckrakes, common enough the world over, superabound in this republic, where the possession of wealth is the only test of rank and the chief instrument of power.

Some months ago, in the drawing room of a mutual friend, we met a gentleman of superior intellect, of thorough training, of accomplished manners, and inherited wealth. The customary salutations were hardly over, before he arose and bade us, "Good by, forever." Asking an explanation, we got it. Said he, "All the people I know, or care to know, in this my native land, are so completely immersed in business that they find no time, and have no inclination if they had time, to enjoy themselves rationally with their families and friends." Said we, "True, indeed, there are comparatively few of our countrymen who have the means or capabilities of elegant leisure; but a man like you might find much worthily to engage his thoughts, and nevertheless enlist his efforts, in promoting educational, artistic, literary and charitable enterprises." He added, "That does admirably, to a certain degree; but over and beyond all that, I want somebody to help me do nothing gracefully, and I cannot find him in America, and am going abroad, where such men are plenty, and intend there to remain." In this man the absorbing Mammon worship about him, had induced a reaction equally censurable with the frame of mind he despised.

A more industrious people than the Germans probably do not exist on the face of the earth. In the matter of social enjoyment the Americans can take some lessons from them with great advantage. They multiply holidays and innocent amusements; and the women and children are invariably sharers in their mirth. This association chastens and refines. Where men take their sisters, sweet-hearts, wives and daughters, they are not likely to let grossness and indecency follow. Social intercourse becomes measurably a broadening of the family circle, or rather the blending of many family groups into one, of large dimensions.

Whatever differences there may be in regard to amusements, there can be none as to the fact that the inordinate pursuit of money is one of the greatest blemishes upon American character. It has its uses in the development of the country, but it imparts to social life a harsh and repulsive aspect, and prevents the cultivation of those amenities essential to refinement, and which are the source of the highest and purest enjoyment.

THE COMPROMISE concocted between the President and the Southern Governors finds little favor in either section of the country. It goes too far in acknowledgment of the right of Congress to enforce conditions of restoration to please the South. It does not go far enough in stripping the rebel leaders of political power to suit the temper of the North. The North is ready to yield much in order to secure a speedy and permanent pacification of the country, but it is not willing to allow the men who got up the rebellion, and prosecuted it so long as means lasted, to come back to pests of influence and power under the General Government. That seems to be the chief point the President now has in view, and in it he has not the slightest prospect of success.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Mr. JEFFERSON is credited with the dicta that every nation needs a Revolution once in thirty years. By this he did not mean to imply it was either necessary or beneficial for a nation to be involved in military strife with itself that often; but that a revision of political institutions was essential once during each age to meet inevitable changes and adopt the civil machinery to the change of ideas and to the creation of new necessities.

This work is now being done upon the national Constitution, and whatever the worshipers of antiquity may say to the contrary, we doubt not the alterations already made and those impending will give abundant contentment to the millions upon millions of the next generation.

It is this aspect of the case that causes us to view with favor the proposition to call a Convention to revise the Constitution of Pennsylvania. Independently of all current accusations of bribery, there are manifold reasons for subjecting that instrument to careful and full review. This cannot be done anything like as well by proposing specific amendments to merit a particular case as by summoning a Convention with general powers—their work, of course, to be subject to ratification by the people, not as a whole, but in detail.

Members of the Legislature! before you adjourn acquit yourselves properly in this matter; and as your time is now getting short, take action in the premises without delay.

THERE is no telling what may be done for man or woman after death has removed them from the scene. A good many mutations have happened of late years, in the popular estimate of dead people, which serve to show that their reputations are liable to as great caprices of opinion as those of the living. LAMERTINE displayed his genius by transforming ROBESPIERRE from a demon in human shape into a rigid and devout Puritan, honest and truthful and unpretending beyond the ordinary run of men who pretend to circumspection of life. CARLYLE changed the estimate in which CROMWELL was held by the whole reading world, relieving him from the odium of being a vulgar usurper and ignorant fanatic, and raising him to the rank of the greatest and best ruler that ever sat on the English throne. A New England book-worm has recently taken the romance out of the biography of POCAHONTAS, painting her in totally different colors from those in which she demurely looks upon all observers from a panel of the rotunda of the national capitol at Washington. Instead of the renowned heroine that so magnanimously saved Capt. SMITH's life, at the peril of her own, this iconoclast makes out that SMITH was hardly worth saving, if it had been possible without cost, and that POCAHONTAS was an ordinary savage girl who gloried in her aboriginal nudity, and preferred coarse gymnastics with the boys to burning incense or chanting worship at the altar. In addition to all this, and much more to this same import there is a story by Atlantic cable, that the Pope is about trying his hand on COLUMBUS, with a view to making a Saint, duly canonized, out of the bluff and adventurous sailor. Though we are far enough from wishing that the discoverer of America may lose any possible advantages, we hope a "sober second thought" may come over the Pope, and induce him to let the great navigator alone. If some limit is not put to taking liberties with the dead, people in middle life will be put to the trouble of forgetting all their learning in youth about historic folks, and assume the task of doing all their biographical reading over again.

WE are informed that a very full and enthusiastic meeting of the Trustees of the Western University was held on the 8th inst. The condition and prospects of the institution were such as to afford the greatest encouragement for the future. Measures were adopted which cannot fail greatly to promote its interests. Two new chairs in Science were created, which will, it is expected, soon be filled. The Board endorsed the invitation to Prof. GUNNING, of Boston, to deliver a course of lectures on Geology in the University, to commence next Tuesday evening. From the high standing of Prof. GUNNING, and his great popularity as a scientific lecturer, a very instructive and interesting course of lectures is expected from him. The University was never so prosperous as now. Soon may it become all our cities demand.

IT is worthy of consideration, that while the more rational of the Southern leaders, and President JOHNSON with them, are now broadly admitting the right of Congress to impose terms on the revolted States, the Northern Democracy, and especially the New England section, are more infatuated than ever with the notion that the rebellion left everybody's rights unimpaired. A few days ago the Democrats of Connecticut met in State Convention at Hartford, and renewed their tender of sympathy with the rebellion, of devotion to State Rights, and all the other abominations by which they have become odious to the public. If people will not be taught wisdom by bitter experience, there is no help for them.

AN important decision has been made in Chicago, by the United States Supreme Court, sustaining the validity of bonds and coupons issued by cities and counties in aid of railroads. The city of Quincy, Ill., had subscribed liberally to the capital stock of a railroad, issuing for the same municipal bonds with interest coupons attached. The city refused to pay the interest, hence the suit and decision. This adds another to the many similar decisions rendered on the same subject by the Supreme Courts.

GOVERNOR CURTIN will sail for Europe the last of the present month. No member of his family will accompany him. He expects to be gone about three months, and to extend his trip into Italy. Upon his return he will re-locate at Bellefonte. Having sold the house he formerly occupied he will be constrained to build.

THE landlords of Chicago have almost unanimously agreed to reduce the rents of their tenants during the coming year, from 15 to 25 per centum. This is in striking contrast with the course taken by the Shylocks of this community in advancing, in many cases, 50 per cent. upon last years' rates.

THEY have a quick way of dissolving the matrimonial bond in Chicago. One day last week a dissatisfied wife applied for divorce, the papers were made out, the alimony determined, the request granted, and the lawyers paid—all inside of four hours.

THERE are sinister rumors afloat to the effect that certain members of the Joint Committee appointed to investigate charges of bribery and corruption, in connection with the Senatorial election, attempted or actually succeeded in turning their position thereon to pecuniary account. Considering the eminent character and transparent unselfishness of all the gentlemen serving on that Committee, we attach no importance to these reports. But, would it not be singular if these inculpations should assume such consistency as to render it necessary or expedient to investigate the Investigating Committee?

INTIMATIONS are given that a bill will be brought before the Legislature to repeal the law authorizing the election of District Attorneys by the people, and restoring the appointment of those offices to the Attorney General. The design is to legislate out of office certain men who are too strong with their constituencies to be defeated. Better change the Constitution and make the Attorney General elective.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The friends of the Bankrupt bill are confident of its becoming a law.

—It is reported that the President has issued a pardon to the pestiferous rebel Governor Letcher, of Virginia.

—The largest contribution ever given by an individual, while living, to the American Baptist Home Mission Society, has just been paid by a member in Vermont. The sum was four hundred thousand dollars.

—A petition is being circulated in the county of Alexandria, Va., for signatures, praying Congress to retrocede the city and county of Alexandria to the District of Columbia. We trust that the prayer of the petitioners will be granted.

—H. F. Janes, who founded the city of Janesville, in Wisconsin, in 1836, soon afterward emigrated to the Pacific coast, and now writes to the Janesville Gazette, saying that, although he is sixty-three years of age, he has never yet seen a railroad or a telegraph.

—Judge Merrick, of Massachusetts, bequeated to his native town, Brookfield, in Worcester county, $10,000 for a free public library, and added to it his own valuable miscellaneous library. To the Children's Friend Society of Worcester, known as the Orphans' Home, he also made a bequest of $10,000.

—Cyrus W. Field made a proposition by telegraph to the Directors and shareholders of the Atlantic cable, at London, to increase the stock to six millions, for the purpose of laying a cable between Heart's Content and Boston, and thus avoid the interruptions so constant in Newfoundland. Mr. Field proposes to sail again for England on Wednesday.

—When General Dix was sent to France, the Johnson press gave it out that Napoleon would be frightened out of his senses, and do everything that the United States required. Well, the General has arrived, and the object so far of his labors is an attempt to get Americans more easily into France, instead of to get Frenchmen more quickly out of Mexico.

The Mormon Girls.

Richard Williams, who delivered a lecture at Buffalo, recently on the Mormons, alluded as follows to one of the disturbing elements among the saints. "There is one element among themselves that is troublesome. The general testimony of the Gentiles who have lived in intimate social relations with them, is that the young girls (to their honor be it said) are mostly disaffected. Growing up with it, they have seen the institutions with all its abominations, and opposed as it is, to all their holier feelings and better instincts, no amount of spiritual thunder can control them. Here, as everywhere, they are a privileged class, and cannot very well be whipped or imprisoned. Like most of the descendants of Eve, they will talk, and are ever ready to elope with a Gentile who has the courage and can get away with them. They cannot marry a Gentile and remain peacefully at home. Very naturally, they prefer a whole Gentile to one-tenth of a Mormon. The most effectual way of breaking up the whole system would be to send an army of ten thousand unmarried men there, and protect every man who married and brought a Mormon woman to camp. We might, in this way, get rid of the nuisance without bloodshed, or incurring the odium of religious persecution."

CONSUMPTION.—This Scourge of mankind, none of either station, sex or age are exempt from its ravages. Helpless and fatal alike to the youthful innocent and the old man of age. Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough Expectoration, shortness of breath, Pain in and about the Lungs and Chest, Darting Pains in the Side and Back, Emaciation and a general nervative condition of the whole system. It is computed and stated that one-fifth of the inhabitants of this country and Europe die of consumption, and its fatality has been thoroughly studied, and its nature less understood; there is no disease upon which exists a greater diversity of opinion, and no disease which has more completely baffled all medical skill and remedial agencies. Persons suffering from this dread disease or any of its concomitants, should lose no time in possessing themselves of the proper Remedy, in order that they may stay its ravages, and be restored to health.

The Dr. EDWARD A. WILSON'S PREPARED PREPARATION for the cure of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Throat and Lung Affections, has been in use over 10 years with the most marked success. SPREAD THE TRUTH.

Some medical men insist that it is undignified to advertise a remedy, however valuable it may be. Queer reasoning this. It is like saying that an article which the world needs should be hid in a corner—that benefits and blessings are not to be widely diffused—that the means of protecting and restoring health should be a close monopoly, and not accessible to all. The argument is bad. It is worse than that; it is ludicrous. Suppose HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—an absolute specific for dyspepsia, biliousness and nervous debility—had never been known to the world, the repertoire of the faculty, what would have been the consequence? Instead of publishing and circulating the good effects of the preparation would have been confined to a comparative few. Instead of the highest authority for saying that light should not be hid under a bushel; that whatever is worth knowing should be placed on a hill, where all men can take cognizance of it. It is upon the principle that the GIFTED should be heard, advertised and continue to be advertised in every newspaper of any prominence in the western hemisphere, and that the spontaneous testimonials in its favor have been translated into all written languages. Thousands enjoy perfect health to-day who would be languishing on beds of sickness if the newspapers had not spread the truth with regard to this unequalled invigorant and corrective far and wide. Suppose proof has been heaped from this pub lenity. Indeed any argument is needless. If the public health has been protected, if lives have been saved; if the feeble have been strengthened, and the sick restored, a great good has been accomplished, and who so mean as to grudge to exertions thus directed their fair reward?

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1867.

How to Economize Fuel.

Dr. Samuel Warren, author of "Ten Thousand a Year," recently wrote a letter to the Mayor of Hull, England, to say that before leaving for London he desired to make a practical suggestion to the householders of the town. The suggestion was this: "To economize the burning of coal, send for an ironmonger or blacksmith, and order him to take the measure of the bottom of your grate and make you a sheet iron plate of about one-sixth of an inch in thickness or even less. Next day, this and light your fire as usual. It will soon burn up, but you must keep pretty open the lowest bar, so as to secure a good draught. When the fire has begun to burn, poke it gently from behind and it will gradually get through the entire mass of coals, the iron plate beneath getting red hot, and so keeping up a combustion, at the same time dispersing the heat through the room, instead of its being sent up the chimney, thus entirely consuming the coal, instead of filling the house with ashes."

Dr. Warren continues:

"In my own house I tried the experiment for a week in the breakfast-room then in the dining-room, then in the kitchen, with uniform and complete success; and when I had the sheet-iron plate put into every fireplace—and there are many throughout the house—with equal success. So I will the fireplace in my official residence. When the fire is once made up, say about 9 A. M., for the day, an occasional poke and push by a single judicious impel suffices for the day. In my own case, and also at my hotel here, where three sentries were required, one now suffices. You must not smile at the simplicity of my suggestion, but attribute my offering to a sincere desire to contribute what little is in my power to promote the comfort of, and lessen expense to, every householder in the good old town of Hull."

A citizen of Hull, likewise stove tried this plan, writes: "The result in my house, where I have had quarter-inch iron plates fitted at the bottom of two fire-grates, at an expense of two shillings each, is a saving in coal of about one-third, with a considerable increase in heat. A large number of persons have already satisfactorily tried the experiment, and the use of the plates is likely to become general in this locality."

The cost of the experiment is a mere trifle.

The Alliance Murder.

We gave last week an account of a murder committed in Alliance, Ohio. The following from the Alliance Monitor, gives further particulars: The party ordered liquor, drank, and was about to depart without paying their bill, when McCugh, who was in the rear of the retiring party, was seized by McCugh, the barkeeper, who demanded his pay. McCugh replied: "I have nothing to do with it," and passed out. McDugan followed him, and as McCugh was unhitching his horse, McDugan struck him with his fist, which caused the remark from McCugh: "If you do that again I'll put a ball through you." No attention was paid to this threat, however, as McDugan immediately seized the bridle, and again struck at McCugh, whereupon the latter fired two shots, the second of which entered the abdomen of McDugan, producing a mortal wound. McDugan cried: "I am shot, take him." Three young men then interfered, one of whom had his two friends, fully convinced that "those who fight and run away, may live to fight another day," skedaddled with the sleigh, and left him at the mercy of his three opponents, who took his revolver, and knocked him down with an ax handle—kept it is said, by McDugan for that express purpose. During the skirmish, McCugh succeeded in regaining his feet and ran a distance of fifteen yards, closely followed by Hugh McDugan, Frank's brother, and was again knocked down, beat severely, and left for dead. He recovered his senses in short time after, went to the residence of Mr. Anitman, gained admittance, had his wounds bandaged, and departed yesterday morning, no one saying whither he was going, but it is supposed that he returned home.

McDugan died Wednesday afternoon at about 3 o'clock. The latter was held under bon l of $3,000 for his appearance at the next term of the U. S. Court at Cleveland, on a charge of counterfeiting.

Capital of West Virginia.

In the West Virginia Legislature the members are cudgelling their heads as to the location of the State Capital. Wheeling of course is anxious to retain the honor. The House of Delegates has indefinitely postponed the question, and this suits the people of the Bridge City, as it used to be called; but the Senate on Thursday, in the twelfth ballot, decided that it should be located at Flatwoods, Braxton county—of the future capital—if the House concurs with the Senate. The Wheeling Intelligencer slightingly observes:

"Flatwoods" is understood to be an undulating plain, whose "fields stand dressed in living green," and are washed by "a crystal delight." It is situated—it is supposed—hard by the "eternal centre" of the State, and was selected, too, that account. So far as known it is believed to be in the woods muchly, and from three to seven miles from Sutton—either east, west, north or south, no matter—and contains a house and a number of acres from one to—well say ten thousand. It may be found on the map, but no where else—so its owners say. It is to be ascertained whether anybody lives there or not, though probably some bears and wolves abound. The productions are purely animal, not vegetable. The climate is not known to be bad.

Outrage in Columbus.

We take the following from the Journal: A warrant was issued last night for the arrest of William T. Underwood, on the charge of violating the person of Sarah E. Vincent, a girl about twelve years of age—daughter of Mr. John Vincent, living on Sixth street in what is known as "Brown's Row," between Town street and State. Underwood is a mason and plasterer, and was engaged at Mr. Vincent's in repairing a chimney. The little girl started across to the school building near, to ask about the health of her teacher, who had been compelled to dismiss her class for one day on account of sickness, and to ask if Underwood would be school to-day or not. Underwood proposed to accompany her, enticed, or forced her into the basement, and outraged her person. The screams of the girl failed to reach the ears of those above, and she was not released until the villian had accomplished his hellish purpose. On releasing the girl, he fled one way while she ran home with the terrible story to her parents. Immediate measures were taken for his arrest, and he can hardly escape. The indignation of the people in the vicinity was last night most intense.

The Growth of Philadelphia.

The population of Philadelphia is now greater than that of any European city, except London, Paris, and probably Constantinople. The other prominent and popu'ous European cities rank as follows: Berlin (in 1861), 547,571; St Petersburg (in 1856), 520,331; Vienna (in 1857), 476,222; Liverpool (in 1866), 494,337; Naples (in 1862), 447,065; Glasgow (in 1866), 432,255. Philadelphia contained, in 1860, 565,529, and this has since about doubled, then increased to upwards of 700,000, and may now reach 750,000. The population of London, according to the census taken last year, was 3,057,593, and of Paris, according to the French census of 1866, 1,826,374. The Press says the growth of Philadelphia has been so steady and uniform, that its prosperity rests on such a solid basis, and there are so few obstacles to its indefinite extension, that it is destined at no distant period to become one of the most populous cities in the world, to rival Paris or London, as it has already outstripped Vienna, Berlin, Naples, and St. Petersburg.

The Rate of Interest.

Says the Philadelphia Ledger: Efforts are now being made in this State to increase the legal limit for the rate of interest from six to seven per cent. The Maine Legislature has under consideration a proposition that the rate of interest in that State shall remain as heretofore at six per cent., but parties to written contracts are authorized to fix and determine the rate of interest on the same, not, however, exceeding eight per cent. Such a bill has been reported to be engrossed in the Senate, after a full discussion, during which an unsuccessful effort was made to raise the rate to seven and three-tenths in place of eight per cent. It is believed that when the House takes action on the bill, it will not prevail in its present form, and that the correspondent of the Bath Journal thinks that seven and three-tenths per cent. will be the rate finally agreed upon.

The Right Way to Serve Them.

The Philadelphia Ledger has the following: On Saturday last, five men were convicted and sentenced to five years each in the Penitentiary, at Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, for the robbery of an express of sixteen thousand dollars. In this case, we are glad to see that not only was the money all recovered, but the rascals were brought to the punishment they deserve. As the result of which effect will be brought about, there would be fewer robberies like that of Jerome, in New York, and of Mr. Cochran, in this city. For the newspapers to chronicle conviction and long sentences in the Penitentiary are what such rogues most dread; but compromises based upon the return of a part of the stolen property, only encourage the repetition of such offences.

Gorge-ous.—The following is from the Lawrence Journal: On Monday morning last, in consequence of a gorge of ice, near Mahoning, a little ice came from the Mahoningtown, Neshannock and the Shenango, from New Castle down, thousands of acres of land were overflowed. The water was carried up to the floor of the Mihoning railroad bridge, and the greater portion of the railroad between the bridge and Mill, at some of the road near the Zeigler farm was inundated. The railroad company had a number of hands engaged in keeping large mowing cakes of ice from the road, so that travel was not interrupted. The conductors and engineers deserve much praise for the careful and safe management of the cars over that perilous portion of the road.

Acquitted.—The boy Jones, indicted for the killing of another boy named stevens, in Hollidaysburg, some time last November, received his trial at the Quarter Sessions last week, and was acquitted. It will be remembered that Jones, who is fourteen years of age, struck Stevens, who was sixteen, with a piece of iron in self-defence.

FINANCE AND TRADE,

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, Feb. 8, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 137¼@137⅝; Eighty-one bonds, 108½; Five Twenties, old issue, 108½; Five Twenties, '65, 107¼; Five Twenties, new, 105¼; Seven Thirties, 105⅝; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 87½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 98¾; Erie, 59½; Michigan Southern, 75½; Chicago and North Western, 37¾; Chicago and North Western preferred, 68¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 98½; Western Union Telegraph Co., 42¼; New York Central, 103¾.

—The total payments of semi-annual duty by the National banks, prior to July 1, 1866, were $7,205,580, and their total payments of internal revenue taxes in the same time were $6,414,881, making a total amount of taxes from such associations of $13,620,461. The indirect revenue derived by the United States from the use of internal revenue stamps in the daily business transactions of the National Banking associations is chiefly paid by the public, and not by the banks. These thirteen and a half millions of taxes paid by the National banks may be considered in abatement to that extent of the eighteen millions received in interest on bonds pledged for circulation, reducing the difference in favor of the banks to a little over four millions.

—It seems highly probable that the 100 millions of 4 per cent Treasury Certificates will be authorized to take the place of the compound legal-tenders, a corresponding amount of which is alleged, fall due this year. It is thought that the rate of interest to be allowed on the certificates may be modified. The New York Times, of Wednesday, says: "The withdrawal of the $1,000,000 per month control of the Secretary of the Treasury over the greenback circulation, though passed upon by the House of Representatives, will scarcely be agreed to by the Senate, or favored by the finance committee of either branch of Congress. Every confidence is now felt that this discretion will be wisely exercised by Mr. McCulloch, and the chances are that he will make no further contraction, for some months to come, under this authority. The other measures, however, having the countenance of the Senate committee, the favor of the secretary, and of the whole western and part of the Northern influence in the House, will fare, we believe, quite differently.

—The Western money markets continue stringent, and an unsettled feeling prevails among the banking and business community in that section. Hence the banks show great caution in discounting, and, although prime paper is taken at 10 per cent as the charge, call loans are made at the same rate, and the street rates vary from 1½ to 2½ per cent per month. The money market at Boston hardly varies from our own. Loans to good parties on choice collaterals are made at 6@7 per cent, and first-class commercial paper is taken at 7@8.

—The rates of fire insurance in Chicago have been again advanced. The Tribune, of that city says: "A few months ago the rates were increased fully fifty per cent, and on the 1st instant the different companies raised their rates fifty to seventy-five per cent, which is an increase of tariff. The reason assigned is that it is impossible to do a safe business at the rates heretofore ruling. The past year has been a peculiarly disastrous one to fire insurance companies, and assuming that experience as a basis for calculation of the future, the companies set. It is probable, however, that last year was one whose record will not soon be paralleled."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, January 9, 1867.

The general markets have been extremely dull throughout the past week, but as our rivers—with the exception of the Allegheny—are again in fine navigable condition, an improvement in all departments of trade is expected and hoped for very soon.

GRAIN—The Grain market continues very dull, indeed, there is scarcely enough doing to establish quotations. Wheat is quoted nominally in the absence of sales, at $2.75 to $2.90 for No. 1 Spring, and $2.85 to $2.90 for prime Red Winter. Barley is steady with sales of No. 1 Spring at 90 to 95. Oats quiet and unchanged; may be quoted at 47 to 48, on track, and 50 to 52, in store. Corn is dull; small sales at 78 to 80. Rye may be quoted at $1.20 to $1.25.

FLOUR—The demand continues light and while the market is dull and weak, prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at $11.50 to $12.00 for good to choice family. Spring Wheat brands; $13.50 to $14 for Winter Wheat, and $16 to $17 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye flour is selling in a small way at $7.75 to $8, and Buckwheat at $3.50 to $3.75 per cwl.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is dull but unchanged; small jobbing sales at 10½ to 11 for Shoulders, and 15½ to 16 for Sugar Cured Hams. Mess Pork may be quoted in a jobbing way at $23.50. Prime Mess Beef, 21 to 21½. Lard is firm at 12½ to 13.

BUTTER—Is coming in very freely, and with an increased supply prices, if anything, are a shade lower, but very few sales of prime Roll being reported to-day above 35. There is no scarcity of this article either here or in the country, and it seems to us, that extreme prices are out of the question.

EGGS—Fresh packed still command 35, but the demand is restricted almost entirely to supplying pressing wants of confectioners and hotel keepers.

APPLES—Dull with increased arrivals, and holders are more anxious to realize. On track, we hear of sales at $3 to $3.25 for fair to good, and prime might bring $3.37 to $3.50. Small sales in store at $4.50 to $4, as to quality.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand at $2.65. Small sales of Timothy at $3 to $3.25; and Clover at $8 to $8.50, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Unchanged; Apples may be quoted at 9 to 10, in small lots, and Peaches at 18 to 20, as to quality and halves.

HAY—Is quiet and unchanged; prime baled may be quoted at $25.00 to $26.00 on track—arrivals continue light.

POTATOES —Continue very dull; small sales of Peach Blows in store, at 95 to $1 per bushel.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, February 9, 1867.

CRUDE—There was not a single operation in Crude to-day that we could hear of, and while the market continues dull and neglected, prices are nominally unchanged. "Smith's Ferry," is selling on the spot, at 7 to 7¼, packages returned, and 12 to 12½, packages included, according to gravity. Venango oil is offering pretty freely at 9 cents, to be delivered in the spring, or on the completion of navigation, but there are no buyers above 8½, and few at anything over 8¼. Kanawha oil is held at 9½, to new crop buyers and 10 cents buyers at 9, and the last sale reported was at 9½. At Oil City, according to our latest advices, Crude was dull and lower, being quoted at 9@9¼.

REFINED—There was not a solitary operation in bonded oil to-day, and as the market is quite dull, buyers and sellers are apart in their views and feelings. It looks at present as if the sales for some time to come might be confined to quotations to be got in the absence of sales, at 22½ to 23, on cars here, and 28½ to 29, delivered in Philadelphia—while for future delivery, prices remain unchanged. Free oil is dull and unchanged; small sales of standard brands at 43 to 44.

Entered sales, 800 head at $4 to 4.50 for common cows and stock steers; $4.50 to 5.50 for good shipping steers, and from $5 to 6.25 for good smooth shipping stock. There has been quite an extensive business done in good steers and good packing cattle. Shippers from Pittsburgh, New York, Cleveland and Detroit are again purchasing freely and several good drovers are being shipped East on owners account. Prices are a shade lower than the quotation given yesterday. Several trains on the Northwestern, Alton, St. Louis and Rock Island roads are behind time and their arrival will, to all appearance, have a depressing effect.—Journal.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather has again turned exceedingly cold, and last evening there was considerable new made floating ice in the Allegheny river. The stage of water last night by the Allegheny marks was nine feet, and at a stand.

The arrivals during Saturday night and yesterday were the Bayard and Forest City, from Parkersburg, and the W. F. Curtis, from Marietta.

The Leonidas arrived at Cincinnati on Friday, with six hundred tons, including five thousand plows. The ken ton was aiding the level here for Pittsburgh on Saturday.

The Argosy and tow boat Resolute passed Pomeroy on Friday, enroute for this port.

The Marietta Register says that the tow boat Little Whale had about a dozen of coal barges in charge, and lost all but one—as a loss of perhaps, $25,000.

The Arabian, bound from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, was at Cairo on Friday. The Messenger was also aground, and the New Orleans for this port on Thursday last.

The Glasgow, Ida Rees and Golden Era arrived during Friday night and saturday. These boats have all been ice bound between here and Marietta, and there were rumors to the effect that the Golden Era had been sunk.

The New York left for St. Louis, with a moderate trip only, notwithstanding she had four days to get it. Shippers held back considerably, in consequence of the advance in freights from twenty-five to thirty-five cents.

As will be seen by card the staunch and reliable Columbia, Capt. Geo. W. Reed, is up for Nashville, and all intermediate points, and we have no doubt she will get a big trip. Messrs. Russell and Splane are associated together in the office.

The silver Lake No. 4, Capt. Hood, is now in turn for Saint Louis, and will leave on Wednesday.

The Argosy, Capt. Vandergrift, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

Efforts were made on Saturday to raise the sunken towboat Traveler, but without success. In the river steadily rose to a few feet her upper works will certainly be carried off. In noticing the disaster in our last issue, we omitted to state that Mr. G. W. Collins, watchman, we believe, on the steamer Grey Eagle, at the risk of his life, made his way to the sunken boat, and extinguished the burning lamps, and thus prevented a conflagration.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Saturday:

The Leonidas ran through very heavy ice all the way here from Pittsburgh. She met the Bellevernon below Maysville, and Capt. R. C. Gray laid up above California. General John S. Mason, U. S. A., was among the Leonidas' passengers. He is destined for Texas. The Navigator, recently sunk in Red river, was insured in Cincinnati for $12,000, as follows: Boatmen's, Magnolia, Commercial, Bucker, Cornell, and Enquirer, $1,000 each. We understand, however, the privilege of navigating Red river was not inserted in any policy. The Alice Brown, from the Kanawha; reshipped 600 barrels of salt on the Importer, for Evansville, yesterday. The Laurie brought 1600 barrels of salt to this city. The Kate Robinson, Capt. R. Robinson, will arrive here this morning from Pittsburgh, and leave for New Orleans this evening, merely stopping long enough to receive her stores and take any freight offering. Capt. W. A. Yore, Esq., of St. Louis, passed through the city yesterday, enroute for Pittsburgh.

Says the St. Louis Democrat: We have a prospective certainty of a steady, immense and cheap supply of coal, as good for our market of Pittsburgh, Prof. Westwood has in his late lecture says of the 450,000,000 tons of coal, twelve miles from Chester, a point on the Mississippi, about 120 miles below St. Louis: "Steamboatmen prefer this coal to that of Pittsburgh. It generates more steam, and is free from sulphur. The lower Mississippi Pittsburgh coal is now bringing $6 per ton; Illinois coal can be furnished for one-third that price."

The M. V. Co., has decided to increase their capital stock to $500,000, of which but little remains to be taken. The sale and the sale of that remaining will increase further capacity for doing business. It is the intention of the company to shortly offer a portion of the new stock for sale in the market.

The R. C. Gray left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday, and the Kenton was advertised to follow on Friday. The Spray left Middleport for Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

It seems that the reports in regard to the Sam. Brown disaster was somewhat exaggerated. The Cincinnati Commercial, of Friday, says: "The towboat, Sam. Brown, which had been reported as literally torn to pieces, came up yesterday, and, while she looks as if she had been very severely handled. Her chimneys had been knocked off; her pilot-house demolished, and other part of the hurricane roof carried away, and many of her stanchions broken off."

Messrs. Crane & Dawson, the local inspectors for the port of Louisville, appeared to contest their removal. The alleged cause of their supercedure was insubordination. Secretary McCulloch has scolded them to vacate by the 15th inst.

We see it stated that in a late case of the roustabouts "jumping," Capt. Buhle, of the steamer Rob Roy, took a derelict crew. It appears that while proceeding on his voyage, and when near Vicksburg, a portion of his crew, who shipped a la Mutiny, consisting of seventeen negro men, became mutinous and left the boat, on arriving at that port, refusing to perform duty. The captain then proceeded to United States Commissioner Adams, and lodged a complaint against them, when they were all arrested and placed in jail, to be tried at the next term, there to be tried on the charge of mutiny before the United States Court. The summary punishment which Capt. Buhle dispensed of his trouble will be the means of giving warning to any evil disposed crew that will hereafter refuse to fully perform their contract while shipping on a steamboat or any other craft.

Says the Cincinnati Commercial, of Friday: The remains of the late Captain George W. Graham passed through this city yesterday morning, by the Adams Express, en route from St. Louis for Zanesville, Ohio, for interment. They are in charge of Mr. Chas. Gallagher. A committee of steamboat commanders were appointed to escort the remains through the city, and the Captains of the Fleet went down to the levee yesterday. She leaves for Pomeroy to-morrow. The Bellevernon, which left here on Thursday, and up the same night at California for coal. She started out again yesterday morning. Capt. A. C. Barton was among the Potomac's passengers for Pomeroy last night. He is looking after his coal interests in that quarters. The Whale on Wednesday caught a coal barge, floating like the pail this city. It belongs to Mr. Risher, of Pittsburgh. A coal ba ge marked "J. P. belonging to the towboat Sam Roberts, floated past the city yesterday and on to Cairo. The Liberty No. 1, which was carried away some three week by the ice, with several of her barges in the last night from below, with one of her barges in tow.

The St. Louis Democrat says: Captain Ben Johnston offers by advertisement, in another column, his entire steamboat stock for sale, or portions of the property. The steamer is a well good carpenter's outfit, and we have no doubt whatever that those who purchase will get bargains. We are sorry that the Captain, who is quite retired from the enterprise, is compelled to take this step by an impaired condition of health.
